Supporting People and Community

We are proud to support people and important initiatives in the communities we serve. In 2023, the Division:

- Awarded $6,000 in bursaries to assist Division commissionaires and/or their direct family members with the cost of post-secondary education.
- Donated $18,000 to the Edmonton Veterans Association Food Bank.
- Supported prostate cancer research in Alberta with a $500 donation through Edmonton commissionaire John Breen's participation in the Motorcycle Ride for Dad.
- Contributed $8,000 to veteran and military support organizations including, Homes for Heroes, Valour Place, Military Family Resource Centres, Aboriginal Veterans Society of Alberta, Glenrose Rehabilitation Hospital, Kipnes Centre for Veterans and No Stone Left Alone.

Former Commissionaires CEO John Slater (now retired) (L) and new CEO Nick Grimshaw (R) present a cheque to Bob Cotton with the Edmonton Veterans Association Food Bank.

Rewarding Careers

We are always on the lookout for hard-working, talented individuals who are ready to make a difference. We offer many diverse and challenging opportunities, from security personnel to leaders, managers and technicians, and you don't have to have previous military or police experience to become a commissionaire. If you are over 18, are legally able to work in Canada, have strong English communication skills and are available for shift work, we want you to apply today.
